Privacy Statement: The Council for Mathematical Sciences (CMS) was established in 2001 by the Institute of Mathematics and its Applications (IMA), the London Mathematical Society (LMS) and the Royal Statistical Society (RSS). In 2008 the Edinburgh Mathematical Society (EMS) and the Operational Research Society (ORS) also became Members. The CMS comprises representatives and observers from the mathematical sciences community, including the Presidents and Chief Executives of these societies. The CMS provides an authoritative and objective body that exists to develop, influence and respond to UK policy issues that affect the mathematical sciences in higher education and research, and therefore the UK economy and society in general.

Personal data provided on this nomination form will be used by the CMS to review as part of the process to appoint an Executive Committee for the National Academy of Mathematical Sciences and a Chair of that Executive Committee under the lawful bases "Consent" and "Legitimate Interests". The CMS will not disclose your information to third parties, except where this is necessary to carry out the administration of the nomination process. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data that we carry out and the right to access any of your personal data held by the CMS. Only personal data of those who are appointed to the Executive Committee, including the position of Chair, will be retained after the nomination process is complete to help with supporting the next phase of the National Academy of Mathematical Sciences.

To be completed by the nominator (if different) from the nominee:

I can confirm that I am happy for my personal data to be used by the CMS during the nomination process for appointing an Executive Committee for the National Academy of Mathematical Sciences and a Chair of that Executive Committee.
